A Acep é uma associação sem fins lucrativos, de duração indeterminada, com atuação junto à Escola Municipal Indígena Pamáali – Baniwa e Coripaco, fundada no dia 02 de dezembro de 2001, durante assembléia realizada na escola Pamáali, esta associação tem sede na escola e foro no Município de São Gabriel da Cachoeira/ AM. Desde a sua fundação vem atuando diretamente nas discussões de educação escolar Indígena no âmbito municipal, estadual e federal. A ACEP foi criada num momento crítico e difícil em termos de diálogo com os poderes públicos com relação à educação escolar indígena, por causa do sistema tradicional de educação no Brasil. O objetivo principal da ACEP é articular os trabalhos da escola com as políticas públicas a nível municipal, estadual e federal, como também articular e gerir as atividades da escola nas comunidades que participam do conselho da escola.

Diretoria Executiva da Acep (2004 a 2008): Irineu Laureano Rodrigues (presidente); Madalena Custódio Paiva (tesoureiro); Germano André (secretário)

A Organização Indígena da Bacia do Içana (OIBI) é uma associação civil, sem fins lucrativos, sem vinculações partidárias ou religiosas, fundada em 1992, filiada a FOIRN, que representa 16 comunidades baniwa (São José, Jacaré Poço, Santa Rosa, Tapira-Ponta, Santa Marta, Juivitera, Arapaço, Tarumã, Bela Vista, Tucumã-Rupitã, Jandú-Cachoeira, Mauá-Cachoeira, Trindade, Aracu-Cachoeira, Siusi-Cachoeira e Tamanduá), num trecho do Alto rio Içana. A OIBI tem como Missão: garantir a qualidade de vida das comunidades indígenas Baniwa do rio Içana através de mecanismos participativos que promovam bem-estar social intercultural e desenvolvimento regional sustentável.

Diretoria Executiva da OIBI (2004 a 2008): André Fernando Baniwa (presidente); Mario Farias (vice-presidente); Irineu Laureano Rodrigues (secretário); Armindo Feliciano Miguel Brazão (tesoureiro)

A Federação das Organizações Indígenas do Rio Negro (Foirn) é uma associação civil, sem fins lucrativos, sem vinculações partidárias ou religiosas, fundada em 1987 para defender os direitos dos povos indígenas que habitam a região do Rio Negro, no Estado do Amazonas – Brasil. Compõe-se de 50 organizaçoes de base, que representam as comunidades indígenas distribuídas ao longo dos principais rios formadores da bacia do Rio Negro. São cerca de 750 aldeias, onde habitam mais de 35 mil índios, compreendendo aproximadamente 10% da população indígena do Brasil, pertencentes a 22 grupos étnicos diferentes, representantes das famílias lingüísticas Tukano, Aruak e Maku, numa área de 108.000 km^2 no Noroeste Amazônico Brasileiro. A Foirn foi reconhecida como entidade de utilidade pública estadual pela Lei no 1831/1987.

Diretoria executiva da Foirn (2005 a 2008): Domingos Sávio Borges Barreto – Tukano (presidente); André Fernando – Baniwa (vice-presidente); Élio Fonseca Pereira – Piratapuia; Renato Matos – Tukano; Erivaldo Almeida Cruz – Piratapuia

Diretoria executiva da Foirn (2001-2004): Orlando Oliveira; Domingos Barreto; Edilson Melgueiro; José Maria de Lima; Rosilene Fonseca

O Instituto Socioambiental (ISA) é uma associação sem fins lucrativos, qualificada como Organização da Sociedade Civil de Interesse Público (Oscip), fundada em 22 de abril de 1994, por pessoas com formação e experiência marcante na luta por direitos sociais e ambientais. Tem como objetivo defender bens e direitos sociais, coletivos e difusos, relativos ao meio ambiente, ao patrimônio cultural, aos direitos humanos e dos povos.
